Services to Students

Health Services performs many functions for the Colleges and Centers. It strives to: remove barriers for students as they seek out health services both on the campuses and in the community; increase the educational successes of students by providing assistance

[REDACTED]

Provide crisis response support to students Coordinate and distribute health education materials at a variety of activities throughout the year

- Psychological Services

- Provide six to ten individual, brief therapy sessions for each student as requested
- Provide crisis intervention
- Provide group therapy sessions as requested

Coordinate psychological testing for ADD, ADHD, Learning Disabilities

as well as the benefits obtained if all students pay the proposed health fees. The officers were very positive towards the new Nurse position and supported the full-fee payment by all students. They are writing a letter of support to the RC and FCC Board of Trustees student representatives this week with a copy to Dr. Kershaw.

Dean of Students Ruben Fernandez and Nurse Pat Jackson met with students at two meetings held on January 10 (ASP) and January 22, 2007 (Deans Student Advisory
